

Please leave Indiana's Telephone Privacy law alone! Our mealtimes have been so much more focused on the family in the evening. We have not been bothered by one call during mealtime since the law was enacted. I do not buy products or services over the phone, so telemarketing is nothing but a bother. We like our law the way it is!